

Mary Benson House

Located in Asheville, NC, The Mary Benson House is a haven of healing and recovery for pregnant and parenting women. The Mary Benson House offers trauma-informed care and strives to empower mothers and mothers-to-be in a safe environment that is built on trust, transparency and collaboration between staff and residents.

While staying at the Mary Benson House, residents are linked with opportunities to further their education, obtain employment, or gain experience through volunteer work after they complete their outpatient program. Financial counseling services are also available to our residents through a separate community agency.
